

Beyond Lip Service: Co-producing Knowledge and Action with Marginal Urban Communities under Climate Change

25th February 2026 11:45 Bangkok time (GMT+7) – 13:00 Bangkok time (GMT+7)

Timing	Speakers	Presentation title
11:45 – 11:50	Dr Anh Vu National Centre for Social Research, UK	Welcome and introduction
11:50 – 12:00	Phoebe Weston-Stanley National Centre for Social Research, UK	Intersectional vulnerabilities and climate-related health risks among informal outdoor workers in urban Vietnam: Survey-based insights.
12:00 – 12:10	Eva Yeung Hong Kong Red Cross	The Scorching Reality: Heat Stress and Humanity.
12:10 – 12:20	Dr Loc Duc Nguyen & Uyen Pham Social Life Research Institute, Vietnam	Rethinking Mental Health Measurement for Precarious Workers: Evidence from Co-Produced Data.
12:20 – 12:30	Dr Giang Thu Nguyen Institute for Development and Community Health – LIGHT, Vietnam	Who Is Seen, Who Is Protected? Policy Visibility and Climate Resilience among Informal Outdoor Workers.
12:30 – 12:40	Zia Rehman Asia Development Alliance	Climate, Livelihoods & Labour Rights: Strengthening Resilience of Women Agricultural Workers in Pakistan
12:40 – 12:50	Dr Manlika Sukitpaneenit Chulalongkorn University, Thailand	Assessment of PM2.5 Exposure and Respiratory Symptoms among Primary School Children in Roadside Urban Environments, Bangkok, Thailand
12:50 – 13:00	Prof. Jonathan Rigg, University of Bristol	This is what climate change feels like' Reflecting on vulnerabilities from below
13:00 – 13:15	All speakers – chaired by Dr Anh Vu	Questions and discussion